

COLEMAN MINER

Volume 1, No. 14

Coleman, Canada, Friday, July 10, 1908

$2 Yearly

The Palm

Hi there! Are you going fishing?

Don't forget we can supply you with a good

Lunch..

Good eating Apples, Oranges, Bananas and Lemons

Confectionery

Have fresh Chocolates twice a week

New Cabbage, Strawberries Tomatoes, Celery, Asparagus Cucumbers, Radishes Lettuce and Onions

Shake Old Man! Milk Shakes

Ice Cream, Sodas, and all kinds of

Soft Drinks

Strawberries and Cream

Ice Cream, wholesale and Retail

Graham & Bridgeford

Summit Lodge, U.D.

A. P. and A. M., G. R. A.

Meets first Tuesday in each month at 8 P.M. at the Masonic Hall. All visiting brethren made welcome.

JOHN WESTWOOD, W. M. H. M. F. S.

Coleman Aerie

1140, Fraternal Order of Eagles

Meets 2nd and last Saturday monthly at 8 P.M. Members invited.

A. M. MORRISON, W. P. J. GRAHAM, Secy.

COLEMAN LODGE NO. 37, meets every Monday

5:30 P.M. Visiting brethren welcome.

G. P. PORTER, N.G.

W. G. WILSON, Secy.

Knights of Pythias, Castle Hall, Senior Lodge No. 25

Meets second and fourth Wednesday evenings. Knights and visitors welcome.

C. C. J. W. POWELL, Secy. R. & S. W. T. OWEN

DR. JOHN WESTWOOD

Physician and Surgeon

Office: Miners' Union Hospital, 2nd Street

Hours: 9-10 a.m. 4-5 and 7-8 p.m.

T. Ede

BARRISTER, NOTARY PUBLIC

Blairmore Alberta

Macleod Business Cards

DR. BRUCE, SURGEON-DENTIST

Office: Young's Drug Store

Special attention to preservation of the Crown and Bridge work

Summons for the painful extraction of teeth. The most skillful known to the profession.

Visits Coleman monthly

CAMPBELL & FAWCETT

Barristers, Notary Publics

Office: Over Chow San's Restaurant

MONEY TO LOAN ON REAL ESTATE

MCKENZIE, McDONALD & WATT

Advocates, Notaries, Etc.

Head office, Macleod Branch at Clarendon, Alberta

MONEY TO LOAN ON FARM PROPERTY

M. McKenzie, J. W. McDonald, J. R. Watt

COLIN MACLEOD

Solicitor

Barrister

ETC.

E. Disney

Contractor and Builder

Plans and specifications prepared, estimates given on all kinds of buildings.

Brick, Lime, Builders' Supplies

Lumber of All Kinds

COLEMAN PEBBLES

Happenings of Interest in and Around this Bustling Town, You are Talked About

The rate to Winnipeg and return during the fall will be 50 cents per WATER—Tablets, bedding boarders, "The Boarding House."

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Hill went to Macleod on Wednesday, returning on Thursday.

Jess Harris is in the tonsorial business and is now working for Joe Fush.

Other novelties can be had at the Coleman Drug Store. All the best brands and flavors. Try them.

O. W. Benedict and wife returned on Tuesday morning from Calgary, where they were attending the fair.

It is expected that the Dominion parliament will open about the 18th of July. Fellow pilgrim, let us pray.

Rev. J. Sergeant, pastor of the Baptist church, will preach next Sunday morning in I.O.O.F. at 4:30 o'clock.

Coleman Lodge No. 6, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, are intending to hold a pic-nic at the same time.

The Coleman base ball team are sweeping all before them. They say that anything the Pines looks easy to them.

Pincher Creek defeated the hitherto unbeaten Macleod base ball team at Pincher Creek on Monday last by a score of forty to twenty.

Charles Higgins is dubbed the champion fiddler of Coleman. Charlie returns home about twenty or thirty speckled beauties.

It is reported, on good authority, that the Dominion fair will be held at Coleman next year. Edmonton may give up the idea.

Coleman foot ball team defeated Bellevue on Saturday last by 4 goals to 0. The boys are expected of doing the same at Fernie tomorrow.

The "Miner" omitted to mention last week for the benefit of the "squaw" that the Dominion fair will be held at Coleman on July 1st, is progressing favorably.

The many friends of Sidney Birt will be glad to see him walking about again. Mr. Birt has his old body back by fall, though he still has a slight limp.

Messrs. W. J. Powell and D. J. Hill returned on Sunday morning from Calgary, where they were attending the institution of the Grand Lodge of Knights of Pythias.

At the Institutional church last Sunday evening Mr. A. C. Fraser presided at the organ and Mr. J. McMan played the violin very acceptably. The singing was bright and cheerful. Mr. D. McPhee sang a very suitable and pretty solo.

FOR SALE—A cottage beautifully situated, comfortable and located in a residential portion. A good cash proposition on easy terms will be given. S. Charles Brooks, "The Cot on Woods," Brook street, Merritt, Victoria, B.C.

Mr. Jones, C.P.R. coal inspector, has commenced work again at the base ball on Sunday last at Homer. The score was 8-10. Coleman team are fast coming to the front in the base ball game. They do not want to be over confident, as one of the best teams men will mean defeat for the best team.

Reports from all parts of the west say that the crops will be the largest on record. Should the weather keep fine until after harvest hundreds of farmers will be on the right way to prosperity. It is reported that some men will be happy to help harvest the crop.

D. J. Hill of the Coleman Hardware Co., proposes to make the Eagle's hall for a private residence. The hall is to be partitioned off and it is to be two extra cupboards. The stage is to be taken away and two comfortable ante-rooms put in its place. The hall is to be walled and the walls papered and the floor carpeted. When finished it will be one of the finest lodges rooms in the west.

Mr. Jones, C.P.R. coal inspector, has commenced work again at the base ball on Sunday last at Homer. The score was 8-10. Coleman team are fast coming to the front in the base ball game. They do not want to be over confident, as one of the best teams men will mean defeat for the best team.

Reports from all parts of the west say that the crops will be the largest on record. Should the weather keep fine until after harvest hundreds of farmers will be on the right way to prosperity. It is reported that some men will be happy to help harvest the crop.

D. J. Hill of the Coleman Hardware Co., proposes to make the Eagle's hall for a private residence. The hall is to be partitioned off and it is to be two extra cupboards. The stage is to be taken away and two comfortable ante-rooms put in its place. The hall is to be walled and the walls papered and the floor carpeted. When finished it will be one of the finest lodges rooms in the west.

Mr. Jones, C.P.R. coal inspector, has commenced work again at the base ball on Sunday last at Homer. The score was 8-10. Coleman team are fast coming to the front in the base ball game. They do not want to be over confident, as one of the best teams men will mean defeat for the best team.

Reports from all parts of the west say that the crops will be the largest on record. Should the weather keep fine until after harvest hundreds of farmers will be on the right way to prosperity. It is reported that some men will be happy to help harvest the crop.

D. J. Hill of the Coleman Hardware Co., proposes to make the Eagle's hall for a private residence. The hall is to be partitioned off and it is to be two extra cupboards. The stage is to be taken away and two comfortable ante-rooms put in its place. The hall is to be walled and the walls papered and the floor carpeted. When finished it will be one of the finest lodges rooms in the west.

Mr. Jones, C.P.R. coal inspector, has commenced work again at the base ball on Sunday last at Homer. The score was 8-10. Coleman team are fast coming to the front in the base ball game. They do not want to be over confident, as one of the best teams men will mean defeat for the best team.

Reports from all parts of the west say that the crops will be the largest on record. Should the weather keep fine until after harvest hundreds of farmers will be on the right way to prosperity. It is reported that some men will be happy to help harvest the crop.

D. J. Hill of the Coleman Hardware Co., proposes to make the Eagle's hall for a private residence. The hall is to be partitioned off and it is to be two extra cupboards. The stage is to be taken away and two comfortable ante-rooms put in its place. The hall is to be walled and the walls papered and the floor carpeted. When finished it will be one of the finest lodges rooms in the west.

Mr. Jones, C.P.R. coal inspector, has commenced work again at the base ball on Sunday last at Homer. The score was 8-10. Coleman team are fast coming to the front in the base ball game. They do not want to be over confident, as one of the best teams men will mean defeat for the best team.

Reports from all parts of the west say that the crops will be the largest on record. Should the weather keep fine until after harvest hundreds of farmers will be on the right way to prosperity. It is reported that some men will be happy to help harvest the crop.

D. J. Hill of the Coleman Hardware Co., proposes to make the Eagle's hall for a private residence. The hall is to be partitioned off and it is to be two extra cupboards. The stage is to be taken away and two comfortable ante-rooms put in its place. The hall is to be walled and the walls papered and the floor carpeted. When finished it will be one of the finest lodges rooms in the west.

Mr. Jones, C.P.R. coal inspector, has commenced work again at the base ball on Sunday last at Homer. The score was 8-10. Coleman team are fast coming to the front in the base ball game. They do not want to be over confident, as one of the best teams men will mean defeat for the best team.

Reports from all parts of the west say that the crops will be the largest on record. Should the weather keep fine until after harvest hundreds of farmers will be on the right way to prosperity. It is reported that some men will be happy to help harvest the crop.

D. J. Hill of the Coleman Hardware Co., proposes to make the Eagle's hall for a private residence. The hall is to be partitioned off and it is to be two extra cupboards. The stage is to be taken away and two comfortable ante-rooms put in its place. The hall is to be walled and the walls papered and the floor carpeted. When finished it will be one of the finest lodges rooms in the west.

Mr. Jones, C.P.R. coal inspector, has commenced work again at the base ball on Sunday last at Homer. The score was 8-10. Coleman team are fast coming to the front in the base ball game. They do not want to be over confident, as one of the best teams men will mean defeat for the best team.

Reports from all parts of the west say that the crops will be the largest on record. Should the weather keep fine until after harvest hundreds of farmers will be on the right way to prosperity. It is reported that some men will be happy to help harvest the crop.

D. J. Hill of the Coleman Hardware Co., proposes to make the Eagle's hall for a private residence. The hall is to be partitioned off and it is to be two extra cupboards. The stage is to be taken away and two comfortable ante-rooms put in its place. The hall is to be walled and the walls papered and the floor carpeted. When finished it will be one of the finest lodges rooms in the west.

Mr. Jones, C.P.R. coal inspector, has commenced work again at the base ball on Sunday last at Homer. The score was 8-10. Coleman team are fast coming to the front in the base ball game. They do not want to be over confident, as one of the best teams men will mean defeat for the best team.

Reports from all parts of the west say that the crops will be the largest on record. Should the weather keep fine until after harvest hundreds of farmers will be on the right way to prosperity. It is reported that some men will be happy to help harvest the crop.

D. J. Hill of the Coleman Hardware Co., proposes to make the Eagle's hall for a private residence. The hall is to be partitioned off and it is to be two extra cupboards. The stage is to be taken away and two comfortable ante-rooms put in its place. The hall is to be walled and the walls papered and the floor carpeted. When finished it will be one of the finest lodges rooms in the west.

Mr. Jones, C.P.R. coal inspector, has commenced work again at the base ball on Sunday last at Homer. The score was 8-10. Coleman team are fast coming to the front in the base ball game. They do not want to be over confident, as one of the best teams men will mean defeat for the best team.

Reports from all parts of the west say that the crops will be the largest on record. Should the weather keep fine until after harvest hundreds of farmers will be on the right way to prosperity. It is reported that some men will be happy to help harvest the crop.

D. J. Hill of the Coleman Hardware Co., proposes to make the Eagle's hall for a private residence. The hall is to be partitioned off and it is to be two extra cupboards. The stage is to be taken away and two comfortable ante-rooms put in its place. The hall is to be walled and the walls papered and the floor carpeted. When finished it will be one of the finest lodges rooms in the west.

Mr. Jones, C.P.R. coal inspector, has commenced work again at the base ball on Sunday last at Homer. The score was 8-10. Coleman team are fast coming to the front in the base ball game. They do not want to be over confident, as one of the best teams men will mean defeat for the best team.

Reports from all parts of the west say that the crops will be the largest on record. Should the weather keep fine until after harvest hundreds of farmers will be on the right way to prosperity. It is reported that some men will be happy to help harvest the crop.

D. J. Hill of the Coleman Hardware Co., proposes to make the Eagle's hall for a private residence. The hall is to be partitioned off and it is to be two extra cupboards. The stage is to be taken away and two comfortable ante-rooms put in its place. The hall is to be walled and the walls papered and the floor carpeted. When finished it will be one of the finest lodges rooms in the west.

Mr. Jones, C.P.R. coal inspector, has commenced work again at the base ball on Sunday last at Homer. The score was 8-10. Coleman team are fast coming to the front in the base ball game. They do not want to be over confident, as one of the best teams men will mean defeat for the best team.

Reports from all parts of the west say that the crops will be the largest on record. Should the weather keep fine until after harvest hundreds of farmers will be on the right way to prosperity. It is reported that some men will be happy to help harvest the crop.

D. J. Hill of the Coleman Hardware Co., proposes to make the Eagle's hall for a private residence. The hall is to be partitioned off and it is to be two extra cupboards. The stage is to be taken away and two comfortable ante-rooms put in its place. The hall is to be walled and the walls papered and the floor carpeted. When finished it will be one of the finest lodges rooms in the west.

Mr. Jones, C.P.R. coal inspector, has commenced work again at the base ball on Sunday last at Homer. The score was 8-10. Coleman team are fast coming to the front in the base ball game. They do not want to be over confident, as one of the best teams men will mean defeat for the best team.

Reports from all parts of the west say that the crops will be the largest on record. Should the weather keep fine until after harvest hundreds of farmers will be on the right way to prosperity. It is reported that some men will be happy to help harvest the crop.

D. J. Hill of the Coleman Hardware Co., proposes to make the Eagle's hall for a private residence. The hall is to be partitioned off and it is to be two extra cupboards. The stage is to be taken away and two comfortable ante-rooms put in its place. The hall is to be walled and the walls papered and the floor carpeted. When finished it will be one of the finest lodges rooms in the west.

Mr. Jones, C.P.R. coal inspector, has commenced work again at the base ball on Sunday last at Homer. The score was 8-10. Coleman team are fast coming to the front in the base ball game. They do not want to be over confident, as one of the best teams men will mean defeat for the best team.

Reports from all parts of the west say that the crops will be the largest on record. Should the weather keep fine until after harvest hundreds of farmers will be on the right way to prosperity. It is reported that some men will be happy to help harvest the crop.

D. J. Hill of the Coleman Hardware Co., proposes to make the Eagle's hall for a private residence. The hall is to be partitioned off and it is to be two extra cupboards. The stage is to be taken away and two comfortable ante-rooms put in its place. The hall is to be walled and the walls papered and the floor carpeted. When finished it will be one of the finest lodges rooms in the west.

Mr. Jones, C.P.R. coal inspector, has commenced work again at the base ball on Sunday last at Homer. The score was 8-10. Coleman team are fast coming to the front in the base ball game. They do not want to be over confident, as one of the best teams men will mean defeat for the best team.

Reports from all parts of the west say that the crops will be the largest on record. Should the weather keep fine until after harvest hundreds of farmers will be on the right way to prosperity. It is reported that some men will be happy to help harvest the crop.

D. J. Hill of the Coleman Hardware Co., proposes to make the Eagle's hall for a private residence. The hall is to be partitioned off and it is to be two extra cupboards. The stage is to be taken away and two comfortable ante-rooms put in its place. The hall is to be walled and the walls papered and the floor carpeted. When finished it will be one of the finest lodges rooms in the west.

Mr. Jones, C.P.R. coal inspector, has commenced work again at the base ball on Sunday last at Homer. The score was 8-10. Coleman team are fast coming to the front in the base ball game. They do not want to be over confident, as one of the best teams men will mean defeat for the best team.

Reports from all parts of the west say that the crops will be the largest on record. Should the weather keep fine until after harvest hundreds of farmers will be on the right way to prosperity. It is reported that some men will be happy to help harvest the crop.

D. J. Hill of the Coleman Hardware Co., proposes to make the Eagle's hall for a private residence. The hall is to be partitioned off and it is to be two extra cupboards. The stage is to be taken away and two comfortable ante-rooms put in its place. The hall is to be walled and the walls papered and the floor carpeted. When finished it will be one of the finest lodges rooms in the west.

Mr. Jones, C.P.R. coal inspector, has commenced work again at the base ball on Sunday last at Homer. The score was 8-10. Coleman team are fast coming to the front in the base ball game. They do not want to be over confident, as one of the best teams men will mean defeat for the best team.

Reports from all parts of the west say that the crops will be the largest on record. Should the weather keep fine until after harvest hundreds of farmers will be on the right way to prosperity. It is reported that some men will be happy to help harvest the crop.

D. J. Hill of the Coleman Hardware Co., proposes to make the Eagle's hall for a private residence. The hall is to be partitioned off and it is to be two extra cupboards. The stage is to be taken away and two comfortable ante-rooms put in its place. The hall is to be walled and the walls papered and the floor carpeted. When finished it will be one of the finest lodges rooms in the west.

Mr. Jones, C.P.R. coal inspector, has commenced work again at the base ball on Sunday last at Homer. The score was 8-10. Coleman team are fast coming to the front in the base ball game. They do not want to be over confident, as one of the best teams men will mean defeat for the best team.

Reports from all parts of the west say that the crops will be the largest on record. Should the weather keep fine until after harvest hundreds of farmers will be on the right way to prosperity. It is reported that some men will be happy to help harvest the crop.

D. J. Hill of the Coleman Hardware Co., proposes to make the Eagle's hall for a private residence. The hall is to be partitioned off and it is to be two extra cupboards. The stage is to be taken away and two comfortable ante-rooms put in its place. The hall is to be walled and the walls papered and the floor carpeted. When finished it will be one of the finest lodges rooms in the west.

Mr. Jones, C.P.R. coal inspector, has commenced work again at the base ball on Sunday last at Homer. The score was 8-10. Coleman team are fast coming to the front in the base ball game. They do not want to be over confident, as one of the best teams men will mean defeat for the best team.

Reports from all parts of the west say that the crops will be the largest on record. Should the weather keep fine until after harvest hundreds of farmers will be on the right way to prosperity. It is reported that some men will be happy to help harvest the crop.

D. J. Hill of the Coleman Hardware Co., proposes to make the Eagle's hall for a private residence. The hall is to be partitioned off and it is to be two extra cupboards. The stage is to be taken away and two comfortable ante-rooms put in its place. The hall is to be walled and the walls papered and the floor carpeted. When finished it will be one of the finest lodges rooms in the west.

Mr. Jones, C.P.R. coal inspector, has commenced work again at the base ball on Sunday last at Homer. The score was 8-10. Coleman team are fast coming to the front in the base ball game. They do not want to be over confident, as one of the best teams men will mean defeat for the best team.

Reports from all parts of the west say that the crops will be the largest on record. Should the weather keep fine until after harvest hundreds of farmers will be on the right way to prosperity. It is reported that some men will be happy to help harvest the crop.

D. J. Hill of the Coleman Hardware Co., proposes to make the Eagle's hall for a private residence. The hall is to be partitioned off and it is to be two extra cupboards. The stage is to be taken away and two comfortable ante-rooms put in its place. The hall is to be walled and the walls papered and the floor carpeted. When finished it will be one of the finest lodges rooms in the west.

Mr. Jones, C.P.R. coal inspector, has commenced work again at the base ball on Sunday last at Homer. The score was 8-10. Coleman team are fast coming to the front in the base ball game. They do not want to be over confident, as one of the best teams men will mean defeat for the best team.

Reports from all parts of the west say that the crops will be the largest on record. Should the weather keep fine until after harvest hundreds of farmers will be on the right way to prosperity. It is reported that some men will be happy to help harvest the crop.

D. J. Hill of the Coleman Hardware Co., proposes to make the Eagle's hall for a private residence. The hall is to be partitioned off and it is to be two extra cupboards. The stage is to be taken away and two comfortable ante-rooms put in its place. The hall is to be walled and the walls papered and the floor carpeted. When finished it will be one of the finest lodges rooms in the west.

Mr. Jones, C.P.R. coal inspector, has commenced work again at the base ball on Sunday last at Homer. The score was 8-10. Coleman team are fast coming to the front in the base ball game. They do not want to be over confident, as one of the best teams men will mean defeat for the best team.

Reports from all parts of the west say that the crops will be the largest on record. Should the weather keep fine until after harvest hundreds of farmers will be on the right way to prosperity. It is reported that some men will be happy to help harvest the crop.

D. J. Hill of the Coleman Hardware Co., proposes to make the Eagle's hall for a private residence. The hall is to be partitioned off and it is to be two extra cupboards. The stage is to be taken away and two comfortable ante-rooms put in its place. The hall is to be walled and the walls papered and the floor carpeted. When finished it will be one of the finest lodges rooms in the west.

Mr. Jones, C.P.R. coal inspector, has commenced work again at the base ball on Sunday last at Homer. The score was 8-10. Coleman team are fast coming to the front in the base ball game. They do not want to be over confident, as one of the best teams men will mean defeat for the best team.

Reports from all parts of the west say that the crops will be the largest on record. Should the weather keep fine until after harvest hundreds of farmers will be on the right way to prosperity. It is reported that some men will be happy to help harvest the crop.

D. J. Hill of the Coleman Hardware Co., proposes to make the Eagle's hall for a private residence. The hall is to be partitioned off and it is to be two extra cupboards. The stage is to be taken away and two comfortable ante-rooms put in its place. The hall is to be walled and the walls papered and the floor carpeted. When finished it will be one of the finest lodges rooms in the west.

Mr. Jones, C.P.R. coal inspector, has commenced work again at the base ball on Sunday last at Homer. The score was 8-10. Coleman team are fast coming to the front in the base ball game. They do not want to be over

When March Winds Blew.

By Virginia Blair.

Copyright, 1888, by E. C. Parsons.

"Wheew-ew-ew!" went the March wind, shrieking around corners, roaring across the open spaces and whirling up sand and dust in the middle of the street now in mid-day.

Down the block from opposite directions came a girl and a man. The girl was all in brown—trim walking skirt, sable fur, tan shoes, a smart toque and a chiffon veil, the ends of which were whipped this way and that as she made her way against the wind.

The man, who had stuck to the curtain, was called rapidly.

The girl was with a few steps of him the mad March wind blew so hard and so strong that she stopped and turned her back to it.

And so sudden was her action that the young man did not have time to get out of the way.

The girl gave a little shriek in the moment of collision. He put out his hand to steady her.

"Oh, you needn't mind," he told her.

"She was pink with blushes, but she said haughtily, "I do mind."

"Of course," he agreed gloomily. "I'd like to wipe myself off the face of the earth if it would do you any good."

"I might at least avoid that block," she told him.

He looked about him.

"I beg your pardon," he said. "I suppose it is the effect of long habit that makes me drift this way."

"Habit may be broken."

"Not the habit of love," he said, at most drowsily. Then his voice took on a tender note. "Catherine," he said, "can you change your mind and marry me?"

"I think," she said very clearly, "that you are mad—as mad as the March wind—as mad as a March hare."

"And why?" he asked. "Because I love you—"

"Because you propose to me at such strange times and places," she cried. "The last time was in a department store just before Christmas when I was buying needles and pins."

"And you made a pincushion of my heart," he reminded her, "and stuck it full of sharp points."

"No woman can respect a man," she said, "who makes himself ridiculous."

He drew himself up sharply.

"So that is it," he said slowly. "Well, perhaps you are right. But you remember that when I first told you in your home and asked if I might speak to your father. You didn't say 'No' and you wouldn't say 'Yes.' And when I asked you again at the bachelors' collision you still let me hope, and when I visited you again. I couldn't believe that you meant it. I can't believe it now."

He laughed bitterly and went on: "But if I have lost your respect it is hopeless. I shall never again ask you to marry me."

"Never," she faltered.

"Never," he repeated, and for a moment he stood looking down at her; then, with a gesture of despair, he went on his way.

She stared after him and started to call, hesitated and went slowly up the steps of the great house before which he had stopped.

"Oh, Aunt Kitty," she said a half hour later when in pink dressing gown and slippers, she talked with Aunt Kitty, who always understood.

Aunt Kitty was a woman of the world. Brilliant and glowing, she had stopped in on her way to some afternoon function.

"How are you glad?" Aunt Kitty demanded. "It's a fine fellow."

Catherine's lips were trembling.

"Oh, Aunt Kitty," she said. "I thought he was, but I have found him out."

"Goodness," asked Aunt Kitty, "what has he done?"

"There is another girl," Catherine said slowly.

"How did you find it out?" asked Aunt Kitty. "How did you find it out?"

"It was the other day after the collision," Catherine explained. "He had told me he cared for me, and I—I was really beginning to care, too, and I thought it would be nice to surprise him. And I knew he always lunched at Marfield's—and I thought I'd do the same, have lunch with him—and tell him."

"Well, of all things!" ejaculated Aunt Kitty. "In these days of chaperones!"

"So I went," Catherine proceeded, "and all the way downtown I thought how glad he would be, and how I would pour his coffee and let him order the things he liked, and how in after years we would go there and eat lunch the anniversary."

"Of course," Aunt Kitty sympathized.

"And as I went up in the elevator I was so happy that people stared, but I didn't care. And when I reached the sixth floor I got off and went into the grill room and started for the table by the window, where I knew he always sat—and then!"

"What a surprise!" was Aunt Kitty's sharp question.

"Yes, he was there. But there was another girl with him. And he was all devotion, and she was all blushes and smiles. And while they were waiting for their order he went out and came back with a bunch of violets and lilles of the valley, and he pressed her hand as he gave them to her."

"Oh, how goodness," said Aunt Kitty, "and how did you manage to tell all that child?"

"There was a little table by the fountain

in," Catherine explained, "and I could see him through the screen of palms, but he couldn't see me—. And then she broke down and sobbed wildly, with her head in Aunt Kitty's lap. There was silence for a moment, and then all at once Aunt Kitty laughed in a perfect ripple of gaiety. Catherine looked up at her in amazement. "Why, what?" she stammered.

"Oh, girlie," said Aunt Kitty, "old you say it was the day after the collision?"

"Yes," said Catherine.

"What kind of hair did the girl have?"

"Wavy, yellow, with little curly around her face. She was really beautiful," Catherine admitted grudgingly.

"Did she have on a gray tailor made, with a hat trimmed with violets and black gauntlet gloves?" questioned the old woman.

"Yes," Catherine nodded, "but—"

"Oh, goose, goose," said Aunt Kitty. "It was his sister. She's married, and she was stopping at the Annex, and I called on her that morning just as she was going out to meet him."

"And so sudden was her action that the young man did not have time to get out of the way.

The girl gave a little shriek in the moment of collision. He put out his hand to steady her.

"Oh, you needn't mind," he told her.

"She was pink with blushes, but she said haughtily, "I do mind."

"Of course," he agreed gloomily. "I'd like to wipe myself off the face of the earth if it would do you any good."

"I might at least avoid that block," she told him.

He looked about him.

"I beg your pardon," he said. "I suppose it is the effect of long habit that makes me drift this way."

"Habit may be broken."

"Not the habit of love," he said, at most drowsily. Then his voice took on a tender note. "Catherine," he said, "can you change your mind and marry me?"

"I think," she said very clearly, "that you are mad—as mad as the March wind—as mad as a March hare."

"And why?" he asked. "Because I love you—"

"Because you propose to me at such strange times and places," she cried. "The last time was in a department store just before Christmas when I was buying needles and pins."

"And you made a pincushion of my heart," he reminded her, "and stuck it full of sharp points."

"No woman can respect a man," she said, "who makes himself ridiculous."

He drew himself up sharply.

"So that is it," he said slowly. "Well, perhaps you are right. But you remember that when I first told you in your home and asked if I might speak to your father. You didn't say 'No' and you wouldn't say 'Yes.' And when I asked you again at the bachelors' collision you still let me hope, and when I visited you again. I couldn't believe that you meant it. I can't believe it now."

He laughed bitterly and went on: "But if I have lost your respect it is hopeless. I shall never again ask you to marry me."

"Never," she faltered.

"Never," he repeated, and for a moment he stood looking down at her; then, with a gesture of despair, he went on his way.

She stared after him and started to call, hesitated and went slowly up the steps of the great house before which he had stopped.

"Oh, Aunt Kitty," she said a half hour later when in pink dressing gown and slippers, she talked with Aunt Kitty, who always understood.

Aunt Kitty was a woman of the world. Brilliant and glowing, she had stopped in on her way to some afternoon function.

"How are you glad?" Aunt Kitty demanded. "It's a fine fellow."

Catherine's lips were trembling.

"Oh, Aunt Kitty," she said. "I thought he was, but I have found him out."

"Goodness," asked Aunt Kitty, "what has he done?"

"There is another girl," Catherine said slowly.

"How did you find it out?" asked Aunt Kitty. "How did you find it out?"

"It was the other day after the collision," Catherine explained. "He had told me he cared for me, and I—I was really beginning to care, too, and I thought it would be nice to surprise him. And I knew he always lunched at Marfield's—and I thought I'd do the same, have lunch with him—and tell him."

"Well, of all things!" ejaculated Aunt Kitty. "In these days of chaperones!"

"So I went," Catherine proceeded, "and all the way downtown I thought how glad he would be, and how I would pour his coffee and let him order the things he liked, and how in after years we would go there and eat lunch the anniversary."

"Of course," Aunt Kitty sympathized.

"And as I went up in the elevator I was so happy that people stared, but I didn't care. And when I reached the sixth floor I got off and went into the grill room and started for the table by the window, where I knew he always sat—and then!"

"What a surprise!" was Aunt Kitty's sharp question.

"Yes, he was there. But there was another girl with him. And he was all devotion, and she was all blushes and smiles. And while they were waiting for their order he went out and came back with a bunch of violets and lilles of the valley, and he pressed her hand as he gave them to her."

"Oh, how goodness," said Aunt Kitty, "and how did you manage to tell all that child?"

"There was a little table by the fountain

CUT OFF BY THE TIDE.

Perilous Adventure of Mother and Children on Yorkshire Coast.

A thrilling adventure recently befell a York lady and her four little children under the precipitous sea-washed cliff's near Filey, on the Yorkshire coast. The spot has a sinister reputation having been the scene of a shipwreck two years ago, that claimed the remains of the crew of the ill-fated steamer Sumas were discovered. It appears that Mrs. Fall and her children were walking along Refreshments village near Filey, and went out for a walk, taking light refreshments for the children, but intimating that they would return for a mid-day dinner. They went to Cayton Bay, half-way between Filey and Scarborough, and reaching the shore scrambled along over the rocks under the cliffs in the direction of Filey. The cliffs range from 200 to 300 feet in height, and are extremely dangerous, from the bottom to which the tide rises. Shortly afterwards they learned, to their dismay, that the tide had turned, and that their retreat was completely cut off. The position was an extremely dangerous one. In their extremity, however, the little party managed to climb the dangerous cliff, in a series of comparative safety, and having done so, they remained, awaiting the hope of attracting the notice of a passing fishing boat. But no boat came by, and there was no one to hear their frantic appeals for help. They were in a state of despair. Meanwhile, as the little party had not returned to Grisbrough, anxiety was roused, as to their safety, and the steward, Rev. A. N. Cooper, hastened to Filey, and, after consulting the police and coastguards, sent a boat to search for them. The boat reached the village of Cayton Bay, and the captain, Mr. Cooper, and his crew, were soon at the scene of the accident. Mrs. Fall and her children were completely exhausted, their voices gone with shouting through the long, weary hours. Mrs. Fall was so dazed that she allowed the rescuers to bring her down, and then, after getting their attention, two young Filey fishermen, named Lane and Jenkins, descended the cliffs on a rope, and, having secured the boat, and cobbles were got ready to search the shore. But they continued to be resentful, and refused to be helped. Two ringleaders were removed from the Truro, and with the help of the crew, the ship was towed to safety.

The captain, however, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. The captain, however, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W. M. Berwick, a cruiser lying at Scarborough, and he, too, refused to be satisfied, and, after a long shot, he was brought into the Truro, and the crew returned to their ship. They then flatly refused to perform further work, and threats, it is stated, were levelled at the captain. He was then succeeded by Lieutenant Commander W.

12 Reasons Why You Should Buy Burton City Fruit Land

Town Lots

Houses and Lots for Sale

in the cleanest and best town in The Crow's Nest Pass

High Grade Steam and Coking Coa. I

We manufacture The Finest Coke on the continent
Correspondence solicited at the Head office, Coleman

International Coal & Coke Co. Limited

When You Are Buying

FLOUR

Take a good look at the SACK and see that the UNION LABEL of the International Union of Flour and Cereal Mill Employees is on the same. Pride of Alberta Mother's Favorite Made by the Taylor Milling & Elevator Co. Limited The First Unionized Flour and Cereal Employees in Canada. No matter what your dealer may tell you NONE is UNION without it.

Coleman

Livery

Every attention given to travellers and the local public

Reliable Horses, Good Rigs General Draying Business Done

Burrows & Higgins Proprietors

Coleman

Laundry

Goods called for and returned to any part of town. Best of work. Careful attention given to all orders.

C. L. Gooey Proprietor

Spring Painting

Have the undersigned renovate that house or place of business of yours. It will preserve the building and make you more cheerful.

Kalsomining

Paper Hanging
Graining

Sign Writing

Sellers & Slemmon Estimates Free

$100 Now

Invested in a lot in

Lethbridge

will mean

$200

one year from now

Why earn 3% when you have such an opportunity as this?

Lethbridge is the center of the largest coal fields in Canada.

Lethbridge is the center of the best farming district in Canada.

Lethbridge is the great railway center. The C. P. R. have large works here.

Lethbridge is the headquarters of the Alberta Railway which has lines to Edmonton and Mountain.

We can sell you fine, level lots within the city limits, close to water works, etc., and adjoining the thickly settled district, within five minutes' walk from the C. P. R. shops, woolen mills, mines, etc.

Write today for full particulars.

Orow's Nest Pass Investment Co. Limited

Head Office:

Lethbridge -- Alberta

PINCHER CITY

Great weather for crops.
Miss Elsie Harrod, spent Sunday at Summerview.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Alexander, of the Alexandra hotel, visited Macleod on July 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. Galvin and daughter spent a few days at the exhibition at Calgary.

Morgan was in Calgary last week on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Ask your druggist for "New Life," the world's greatest guaranteed cure for indigestion.

Did you go to the Dominion fair? It was a credit to Calgary and the whole of western Canada.

The well drillers are now up to the sports at Coleman on July 1, and they report having a good time.

Look for the posters of the strawberry social and band concert to be held at the Methodist church on July 1st.

There was a large number of people from the surrounding district who went up to the exhibition, among them were W. Giese and two sons of Summerview.

The well drillers went to Calgary last week to take in the exhibition. They have completed boring, but are waiting for the necessary tools to fix the well up.

The midsummer holidays have commenced. Miss Hagan is spending a few days at the exhibition in Calgary, after which she will spend her vacation at Summerview.

The recent showers are just what was needed to bring the crops on and freshen them up. The weather never looked better than that do now. The bye word is, "a bumper crop."

Mr. and Mrs. Legault and family arrived home from a two months' visit in Quebec and other eastern provinces. Mr. Legault says there is no place like sunny southern Alberta.

Mr. Findlay, the Methodist minister who succeeded Mr. Seeley, preached his first sermon to his new flock on Sunday. Mr. Findlay is a good speaker and an interesting minister. He will be well pleased and benefitted.

Quite a number from the city drove out to the Old Man river on July 1st and enjoyed themselves very much fishing. The weather was hot but the air was cool and an all-round good time.

We were pleased to see the Pincher Creek citizens' band up at Calgary on July 4th. We understand they took third prize and if they had had uniform they would have had a much better show.

The exhibit from the Pincher district at the exhibition was very good, and goes to show the great resources of the district. We have a splendid agricultural district, and the outsiders look on us with envy.

Last Friday afternoon the closing entertainment was held in the school and everyone was well pleased with the show put on by the children. Mrs. Watson and Mr. Robertson delivered brief addresses to the children. Those who visited the school were Mrs. Fagan, Mr. and Mrs. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Read, Miss Flossie Read, Mrs. Watson and Miss Barbara Elliott. Cake and lemonade were served by the children.

COWLEY

Born To Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wills on Tuesday last, a daughter.

A. H. Knight is having a new residence built on main street west.

W. Carney's auction was well attended. Everything was sold at good prices.

Born To Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hains on Wednesday, June 29, a daughter.

A ball was held in the Cowley hotel on Wednesday night and was largely attended.

Mrs. Bill and family returned Friday from Penticton where she was visiting her mother.

Ed. Parker took a load of wheelbarrows and other wooden materials to Pincher City last week.

A dance was given at the Alberta hotel by the manager, S. B. Griffiths.

D. R. McIvor returned from Bruce, Ontario, Saturday morning. He reports the east enjoying prosperity.

Two cows were killed on the C.P.R. track west of town last week. One belonged to N. Cyr, the other to R. W. McIvor.

Cowley will be well represented at the Mountain Mill sports, viz., the foot ball and baseball teams and a number of horses.

The many friends of Mrs. T. B. Hodge will be pleased to hear of her recovery.

A new residence has been built on Cameron street, next to the Union Bank. It is occupied by Messrs. Patterson and Northrop.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Deneen, Mr.

W. C. Robinson, W. Knight, F. Lank, E. B. Thompson, George Fortier, M. Lafountain, and W. Fortier are at

Calgary attending the fair.

Ice polo much was played here on Wednesday last between Pincher Creek and Cowley and resulted in a win for Cowley by 7 to 2. The line up was: Pincher Creek - Plunkett, Shantz, H. Cooper, B. Bolster, Cowley - Gunn, J. Milvain, V.

McBride, T. Hesp.

1. It is good soil, clay loam. 2. It is free from stone. 3. It is level land. 4. It is well watered. Running water can be put in every house. 5. The front on the lake. 6. The best of transportation. Two boats daily. 7. You are close to good hunting, fishing and boating. 8. The land is easily cleared. 9. It is the centre of the fruit growing district of B.C., with orchards on the adjoining blocks. 10. The title is good. 11. It is close to town and market. 12. Our price is low and terms easy.

J. E. Annable
Nelson, B. C.
The largest individual owner of Fruit Lands in the Kootenay

R. W. Morgan & Co.

We endeavor to make your trading here a source of every day saving, our constant aim being to sell BETTER GOODS than you can procure elsewhere and for LESS MONEY. If you are in a position to pay cash for your purchases, let us supply your wants.

We Guarantee that our Prices WILL SAVE YOU MONEY

Broadway

Faultless

Clothing

We are offering special reductions to reduce stock before our semi-annual stock taking. Our showing comprises the

Newest and Latest Styles and Materials made up in the Celebrated Broadway manner. If you are interested in Summer

Clothing we would be pleased to have you examine our range and note our special stock taking reduction prices

Men's Suits from $6 up to $25

This Special Reduction Sale will also cover SHOES FOR ENTIRE FAMILY and a complete line of

Gents' Furnishings

Remember Our Special Offer

We will outfit the entire family at the same price it would cost you from the Catalogue Houses.

R. W. Morgan & Co.

Pincher City

Alberta

THE PINCHER CITY Mercantile Company, Limited

WHAT DO YOU THINK OF IT?

Dominion Fair to be Held in Pincher City Next Year

That is, if it will be satisfactory to the people, and to the Fair Association; more will be said on the subject later on. It might not be interesting reading for us to tell you of the great sights we saw at the Dominion Fair at Calgary, for everybody has been there and have seen the same sights. It is not for the purpose of calling your attention to the great Dominion Fair held at Calgary, we write, it is for the purpose of attracting your attention to OUR FAIR PRICES ON MERCHANTISE

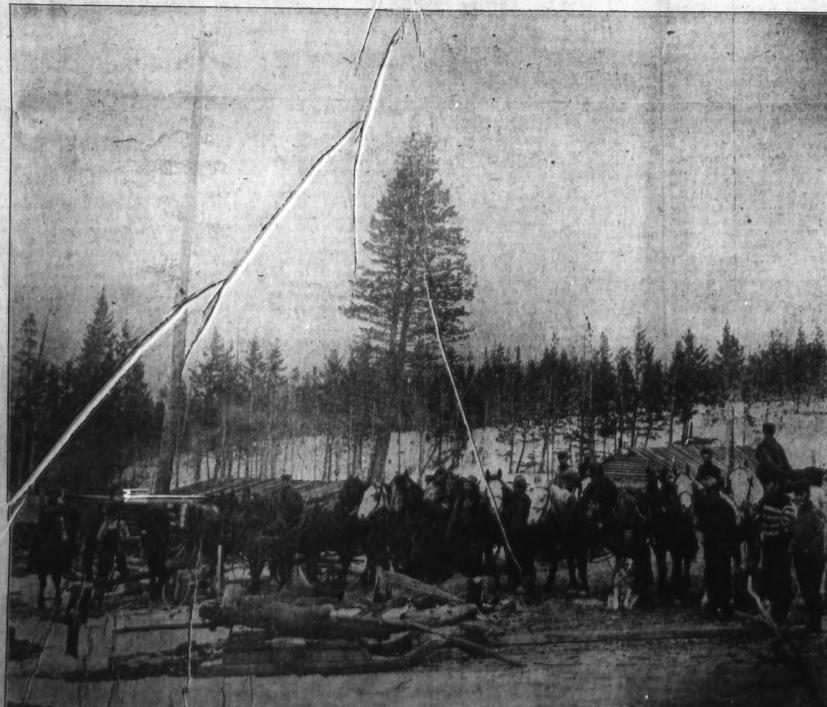

To our many customers who are reaping the benefit of our fair prices, this will be no news to them, but it is those who are practicing extravagance by dealing at high priced stores that we are after, for it is those people who are complaining about hard times. We have thousands of dollars worth of high class dry goods. Ladies' wear, house furnishings, staple and fancy groceries, which we are selling at fair prices; space will not permit us to name the many articles and quote prices on same, but we will assure you that we will give you one hundred cents worth of merchandise for one dollar.

Remember when you are dealing with us you are dealing at a strictly cash store, and you are not helping to pay some never pay's account. By helping to pay other people's accounts you may be practicing philanthropy, but you are not getting any credit for it in this world, and we are afraid very little in the next.

P. S.—A glass of pure cold water, a product of Pincher City, given free with every dollar's worth of merchandise purchased.

Yours for Business

The Pincher City Mercantile Company, Ltd

Camping Outfit

OF

W. J. Sanvidge

Group of men and horses two miles up in the mountain, where timber is taken out for the mine of the International

Coal & Coke Co.
Limited
of Coleman